1. All letters coming to Czechoslovakia from abroad must bear the censor's stamp "Praha 120" on the front. The office which censors foreign mail is allegedly located at the Prague-Kbely (051/189) airfield. If a letter mailed in a foreign country reaches the post office of its destination without the proper censor's stamp, the letter must be returned by registered mail to the Praha 120 post office to be stamped. Particular attention is paid to letters coming from Yugoslavia.
